Rome, June 25. N. S.

THE Imperial and Spaniſh Ambaſſadors do both offer to preſent to the Pope in the Name of their Maſters the uſual Tribute for the Kingdom of Naples; But the Pope has put off that Ceremony, declaring, That it ſhall be no Prejudice to his Right, or to their reſpective Pretenſions. This week the Pope went to the Caſtle of St. Angelo, to take a view of the Treaſure depoſited there by Sixtus the Fifth, out of which 'tis ſaid, he deſigns to take what may be neceſſary to ſupply his preſent Occaſions.

Ferrara, June 29. Yeſterday in the afternoon 2000 German Horſe came to the Bridge of Polentone on the Po, and having ſecured that Paſs, 500 Horſe came over the River, as the reſt did the night following. The whole Body commanded by Count Palfi will be this night at Ponte de Lago Oſcuro on the Po, where is a great Stone Bridge. The Marquis Davia is ſent hither by Prince Eugene, to deſire the Cardinal Legate, that the Germans may be furniſhed with Proviſions for their Money. A Lieutenant-Colonel is likewiſe come with a Compliment from the Marſhal de Catinat to the Cardinal Legate.

From the Imperial Army under Prince Eugene near the Country of Ferrara, July 1. After we had paſſed the Adige, we lay ſtill ſeveral days to get together the neceſſary Proviſions, and ſent out ſeveral Parties to take an account of the Country. We made a Bridge over the Tartaro near Caſtel-Gulielmo, which the Forces commanded by Count Palfi paſſed the 28th, and more Troops followed; ſo that we are now 14000 ſtrong, and are encamped not far from Ferrara, and within 3 miles of the Po, over which River the Quarter-Maſter-General Visbome, with 1000 German Horſe, has already paſſed, and the reſt of the Troops will follow as ſoon as the Field-Artillery is come up. Prince Eugene ſeems reſolved to march into the Dutchies of Modena and Parma, where we ſhall find Plenty of Proviſions, and beſides, our advancing this way may ſtrengthen our Intereſts in Italy. Count Guttenſtein continues near Peſcantina with a Body of German Forces, and is to join the Troops which are marching hither with the Artillery. Marſhal de Catinat has poſted Detachments of his Troops at Oſtiglia, and other Places.

Venice, July 1. The Imperial Army has paſſed the Adige and Tartaro, and march towards the Po, and having paſſed that River likewiſe, they may turn their March either towards Milan or Naples; Their Artillery has by this time joined them, and they proceed with all the expedition poſſible. 'Tis ſaid, there has been a great Diſpute in a Council of War between the Prince of Vaudemont and Marſhal de Catinat, and that the former is much diſſatisfied that nothing has been done to hinder the Progreſs of the Germans, which very much encourages their Friends in Italy. They write from Rome, that the Spaniſh Ambaſſador lately demanded the Inveſtiture of Naples for the King of Spain in very high Terms; but that it had no effect upon the Pope.

Letters from Mittaw of the firſt Inſtant give an Account, that the Saxons have marked out a Camp for 8000 Men near Riga; That a Detachment of their Forces have poſſeſſed themſelves of an Iſland in the River Dwina under the new Works of the Citadel; That they had raiſed two Batteries againſt the Place, and it was ſaid, General Steinau had Orders to bombard the Town.

The Marquis of Bedmar has received from Spain a Commiſſion to be Governor of theſe Provinces, which Command he has exerciſed till now by virtue only of a Commiſſion from the Moſt Chriſtian King. 'Tis ſaid, the Prince of Berclaes is to Command the Forces of the Elector of Cologne.

Hague, July 15. The King embarked laſt Tueſday on the William and Mary Yacht in Margate Road, and landed yeſterday about 9 in the morning at Oranie-Polder, and from thence came to Honſlaerdike, where the Penſioner and ſeveral other Perſons of Quality waited upon His Majeſty; And having dined with Monſieur Rheinemberg, His Majeſty arrived here about 10 at night.
